Theoretical Approach:

Engage clients through Consulting & Coaching, End-of-Life Doula, Reiki, Grand Finale LMT, and Spiritual Engagements, and Ministerial services promoting and empowering them to create and live in excellence with healthy lifestyles; physically, mentally, financially, relationally, and spiritually.

- a. Consult & Coach: I empathetically help the client see the highest potential within themselves so they can call it out, and into being, in a judgment-free environment. I encourage the clients to inspire themselves, in the creative process, to set visions and measurable goals that improve their thoughts, actions and beliefs, which result in optimal performance and quality of life. I help the clients set realistic accountability standards for themselves.

- b. Reiki Healer: Reiki means “Spiritual Energy; “Universal Life Force;” “Chi” (vital life force energy. Reiki improves and balances energy throughout and around the body, promoting relaxation, reducing stress, and improving overall health. With the connection to God’s life-force energy and the energy of client, my hands are placed just above client’s body or gently place on client’s body to assist in the transfer of and the elevation of their energy that promotes healing.
- c. End-of-Life Doula: End- of-Life-Doulas guide a person and their loved ones to live the best life they can through the end-of-life season, their Grand Finale; giving everyone peace of mind so the person can pass on and their loved ones can thrive. I empathically and compassionately listen to and adhere to the wishes of the dying.
- d. Soul Transformation Coaching: Coaching session that sets an intention such as grief transformation, inner child healing, and other unique soul-based healing. This is tailored to the client and defined before receiving coaching.
- e. Fireside Realm of Refinement Ceremony: I create a fire ceremony with a fire, a guided meditation, The Story, The Release, The Acceptance, and The Renewal so clients can discover their obstacles, release bondages, accept their present experience, and find hope for their future.
- f. Spiritual Retreat Writer and Presenter: I listen for and receive spiritual direction from God regarding spiritual topics to write weekend retreat content. I create and present weekend retreats and spiritual teachings and studies; complete with teachings, self-care, and music that encourage clients to become spiritually alive.
- g. Grand Final LMT: Through this Life Management Tool eBook, Workshops, and APP, I provide clarity, preparedness, and guidance, when life happens and transitions with transformations become pivotal to stepping forward into the unknown.
- h. Ministerial Services: I officiate marriages, funerals. I provide premarital coaching, and Christian based coaching services.
